To Whom it may concern:

Dear Committee Members.

In regards to the upcoming Workers Compensation Act Legislative
Review 2025-2026.

Please consider this concern for workers.

- Currently the Workers Compensation Act (the Act) Section 39(2) States subsection(3) wage loss benefits are payable until

- a) the loss of earning capacity ends, as determined by the board; or
- b) the worker attains the age of 65 years.

Therefore, wage loss Benefits end at 65 yrs.

It would be fair and beneficial that the workers situation be

(2)

Considered on a case by case basis.

I'd be happy to discuss further in detail my position and concerns if required.

Thank You for your time.

Respectfully,

Shann Deguyse.
